Tuesday, September 12th, 2017

5:30 pm – 7:00 pm

Msgr. Happel Room, Caldwell Hall

6th century fresco of St. Augustine, Lateran Palace

St. Augustine's best known work has been studied at CUA since the University's founding. This semester the Confessions is the focus of three separate courses taught by faculty members in the schools of Theology and Religious Studies, Philosophy, and Arts and Sciences. Join these experts on Augustine for an evening of theological, philosophical, and literary reflections on the Confessions at Catholic University. All are welcome.

Dr. William Klingshirn (Dept. of Greek and Latin)
"The Confessions in the Classical Curriculum"

Dr. Kevin White (School of Philosophy)
